Wine Highlights: Our 6 Bottle White and Mixed Clubs will be receiving a bottle of our 2020 Estate Falanghina in this quarter's shipment. Falanghina is one of five rare grapes introduced to the United States as a varietal by Cougar; this is a wine that we hold dear to our hearts! Falanghina has ancient roots in southern Italy, namely the Campania region. It features pear, apple, and floral notes on the nose, with hints of citrus fruits (grapefruit, lime) on the palate. Pair this crisp white wine with seafood or fish, light pasta dishes, or a caprese salad. If your club is not automatically receiving Falanghina in this quarter's shipment and you would like to try some yourself, you can switch out pre-selected wines or add on to your order through your online wine club account.

NOTE: Our 2020 Estate Falanghina is currently on a CASE SPECIAL...$129 (+tax) for 12 bottles! This is a great deal that can't be missed (especially with the holidays coming up shortly...wine makes a great gift for your loved ones)! Only available while supplies last. You can purchase a case in the tasting room, order online by clicking here, or call us at 951-491-0825 to place an order over the phone.

The grape harvest is over! This year we have harvested the following varietals: Pinot Grigio, Sangiovese, Malvasia Bianca, Vermentino, Sagrantino, Montepulciano, Aglianico, Primitivo, Falanghina, and our newest addition, Ciliegio! Now, the wine making process can begin.

We have also been harvesting olives from the trees lining our property! These will be used for estate-made olive oil (only $15.69 with your 6 Bottle Club 30% discount), olive tapenade for our charcuterie boards, and cured snacking olives which will soon be available for purchase.

In addition, we would like to highlight our estate Verjus, which is an unfermented grape juice similar to vinegar. "Verjus" is French for "green juice." Our current batch of Verjus is made from equal parts unripe Aglianico and Montepulciano grapes; rather than disposing of the unripe berries, we used them to create this wonderful vinegar substitute which can be used in place of vinegar in many recipes. Our favorite recipe is a salad dressing consisting of Verjus, a little oil, and Dijon mustard. While most vinegars compete with wine on your palate, Verjus is mild enough to leave your palate intact, allowing you to savor your food and your wine simultaneously. You can purchase a bottle (or ten!) in the tasting room or through the online store (only $10.98 with your 6 Bottle Club 30% discount!).

Verjus Vinaigrette Recipe

Prep Time: Approximately 5 mins

1/2 cup Verjus

1/8 cup light oil (our Estate Olive Oil is perfect!)

1 TBSP Dijon mustard

Whisk all ingredients together and use as a salad dressing, chicken marinade, sauce for vegetables, etc.

Winemaker Notes:

Harvest is over and all of the grapes are in!

"Monte is still fermenting and almost ready to press off.

Now we're on to our other crop...Olives. Crazy year for olives, the trees are loaded. We're brining olives we picked a few weeks ago. Yesterday we started two-days of milling olives for their oil."
